"I love seeing the look on someone's face the first time they see Stampin' Up! products. I'm always excited to do a workshop, because I can't wait to see who will be there and who will see Stampin' Up! for the first time and fall in love with it."

From the moment we started Stampin' Up! in my living room more than 20 years ago, we focused on running a company that cared about people and made relationships a number-one priority. Although we've experienced amazing growth and success through the years, we have never lost sight of what matters most to us.

I invite you to join our family—pick up the phone and ring your demonstrator. We've made it our business to work closely with everyone, from enthusiastic crafters who want to enjoy a discount on their products to dedicated businesspeople who are excited about building their own businesses.

Regardless of your goals, we're confident you'll find what you're looking for—and so much more—right here.
